State Bar No. 09234200
Attorney for Plaintiffs

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

Instructions for Interrogatories

A. Each Interrogatory shall be answered separately and fully in writing under oath, unless it is objected to, in which case you shall state the reasons for the objection and shall answer to the extent the interrogatory is not objectionable.

B. You are required to conduct a thorough investigation and provide all information available to you, including information in the custody or possession of your attorneys, investigators, experts, agents, representatives or anyone acting on your behalf.

C. The answers are to be signed under oath by the person making them and the objections are to be signed by the attorney making them.

D. All grounds for an objection to an interrogatory shall be stated with specificity; any ground not stated in a timely objection is waived.

E. When you are asked to identify a document which you claim is privileged, identify the document with sufficient particularity to request its production under Rule 34(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

Instructions for Requests for Production

A. Respond to each Request for Production separately by listing the documents and by describing them as defined below. If documents are numbered for production, in each response provide both the information that identifies the document and the document's number.

B. For each document or other requested information that you claim is privileged or is not discoverable, identify that document or other requested information. State the specific grounds for the claim of privilege or other ground for exclusion.

C. For each document you claim is not discoverable (1) identify the document; (2) state the reasons for your claim; (3) state the author's job title and address; (4) state the recipient's job title and address; (5) state the name and job title of all persons to whom it was circulated or who saw it; (6) state the name, job title, and address of the person now in possession of the document and; (7) state the document's present location.

D. For a document that no longer exists or that cannot be located, identify the document, state how and when it passed out of existence, or when it could no longer be located, and the reasons for the disappearance. Also, identify each person having knowledge about the disposition or loss of the document, identify any other document evidencing the loss of the document, and identify any other document evidencing the lost document's existence or any facts about the lost document.

E. When a party withholds information otherwise discoverable under the rules by claiming that it is privileged or subject to protection, the party shall make the claim expressly and shall describe the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced or disclosed in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable other parties to assess the applicability of the privilege or protection.

Instructions for Requests for Admissions

A. Answer each request by either admitting the matters of which an admission is requested, denying specifically the matters of which an admission is requested, or setting forth in detail the reasons why you cannot truthfully either admit or deny these matters.

B. Each of the matters of which an admission is requested shall be deemed admitted unless, within the period designated herein, you make and deliver or cause to be delivered a response as provided in F.R.C.P. 36.

C. Any admission made pursuant to this Request is for the purpose of this pending action only; it does not constitute an admission for any other purposes and may not be used against Defendant in any other proceeding.
